Hi Emily - Welcome back

I appreciate you have probably have a mountain of emails in your inbox but when you get to mine - just to update you.

I held a discussion last week with Cassandra, the admin officer I am guessing is supporting Jeff Brannan (That is as high up the tree as they would progress me) in relation to the issuing of the decision notice.

On her advice it was going to be issued last Thursday afternoon. - Nothing as yet.

I am wondering if you might be kind enough to chase that up for me and just find out what's going on?

I have almost completed preparation of the DA for Operational Works. I'm just clarifying you that I can submit the development application on a USB posted to council?

Also I encountered difficulty in converting some of the word documents across to PDF (New MS upgrade I suspect) because it was removing the bookmark part of the hyperlinks code - making them ineffective to use.

Is it okay if I include 'Word' documents in those instances instead of PDFs?

Hoping you enjoyed your break.

My regards

Warren
